

Thank you Letter From Debbie DeLutro

Dear Gerri,

All we can say is “WOW”! Every detail of my daughter’s wedding was thoughtfully planned and superbly executed. The beauty of Rancho Chiquita cannot be described in mere words. It literally takes your breath away. It is the most magical setting we could have hoped for. The courteous and efficient staff helped make everything run with absolute perfection. And then there is the food! The guests are still raving about how fresh and delicious everything was at the cocktail hour and the reception. And then when they thought it couldn’t possibly get any better the desserts were simply pure decadence!

But more than any of this I want to thank you for being so caring and making us feel like part of your family and going the extra mile in every aspect to make it the perfect day. It was a once in a lifetime experience and I want to thank you for making it so special.

All the Best.

Debbie DeLutro
